

Use this easy-to-follow product guide to get information on our Certificate of Deposit (CD) services, fees and policies.

All Popular Direct deposit products are offered by, and will be opened through, Popular Bank ("Popular"). Popular is a Member FDIC institution and a New York state chartered bank. Processing services for all Popular Direct deposit products are provided by Popular. All deposits with Popular (including deposits through Popular Direct deposit products) are insured by the FDIC up to the applicable maximum amount allowed by law for each deposit ownership category. All balances for Popular Direct and Popular deposits would be combined for purposes of determining FDIC coverage eligibility. For more information about FDIC insurance coverage of deposits accounts, visit <https://www.fdic.gov/deposit/deposits/>. For additional information regarding your account, please refer to the Personal Banking Disclosure and Agreement for Popular Direct Products.

<sup>2</sup> For our most updated interest rates, please visit <https://www.populardirect.com/products/cds/>. APY assumes interest will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal will reduce earnings.

<sup>3</sup> At your request, Popular may credit interest quarterly or at maturity. At maturity option is only available for CD terms less than 12 months. If the account is closed before accrued interest is credited, the accrued interest will be paid to you.

<sup>4</sup> An "External Account" is an existing deposit account that you own at another US financial institution and you have successfully validated through the External Account function in Popular Direct Online Banking. You cannot change your External Account during the first 60 calendar days after opening your Popular Direct account. Thereafter, you may change your External Account. However, each time you change your External Account, you may not change it for 60 calendar days.

<sup>5</sup> Early withdrawal penalties do not apply in the event of the death or legal incompetency of the owner of the account.
